TESTIMONIALS

"I firmly believe Ross is in the ninety-ninth percentile of all editors.

His comedic timing is incredible and zany and his output is nothing short of masterful. Ross has the ability to get the most out of any footage and make it as entertaining as possible while never losing focus of the narrative thread of the video. He has an innate understanding of the cycle of tension-and-release that drives content engagement. Ross capitalizes on moments I would've overlooked and consistently surprises me with his humor and creativity.

I hold Ross in great awe and respect. He does painstaking, professional work and I feel spoiled to have worked with him."
